As Though I Had Been There

Words and music by Annette W. Dickman

1. Once Jesus sat upon a hill and taught a multitude Of faith and love and peace and joy—He taught them to do good. The scriptures bring these words to me as though I had been there, And when I read them, I can feel my Savior’s tender care.

2. Once Nephi, Alma, Samuel, John were prophets God had sent. They taught His children faith and hope; They taught them to repent. And this song is the way I feel in that place.
