I like to listen to the prophet. His words are good and true.

When he speaks, he always tells us good things we can do. I see love shining like the Savior's. In his face for me and you. He cares for each one of God's children. I know he loves me too. He wants us all to live so we can be with God once more. And if his counsels we'll obey, They'll open wide the door. I like to listen to the prophet. He's here to show the way. When he speaks, I want to live To be with the Lord someday.
