There's a quiet whispering

Deep in your heart

It's a voice that reminds you

Who you really are

You were faithful to Father

You worshipped the Son

You rejoiced in the plan

That allowed you to come

To this earth to learn and achieve

Now is the time to stand up for what you believe

Do you remember the promise

You made back then

How you longed for the chance

To show faith in Him

Now that you're here

And you're finding your voice

You're living the plan

And you're making the choice

Where you stand

Where you stand Where you stand

You knew there'd be moments

When you'd walk alone

With darkness and trials

You'd face on your own

You knew there'd be times

When the choice was unclear

And you'd need Him to quiet your doubts

And your fears

To give comfort to show you the way

Now is your moment to say

You remember the promise

You made back then

How you longed for the chance

To show faith in Him

Now that you're here

And you're raising your voice

You're living the plan

And you're making the choice

Where you stand

Where you stand
