One, for each blessed day

Two, every breath I take
Three, for my family

Four, all they mean to me
Five, just to be alive

Six, for the earth and sky
And seven for heaven
For every good thing
That I have comes from God
Every day every hour
There are blessings
He sends
Without number or end
If I counted a hundred
Or a thousand I’m sure
There would still be more
to be thankful for
Eight, for the chance to grow

Nine, heart and hands and soul
Ten, for the eyes to see
All God has given me
I could go on and on

Counting the whole day long
I know He is with me
For every good thing that I have comes from God.
Every day every hour
There are blessings He sends Without number or end
If I counted a hundred

Or a thousand I’m sure
There would still be more
There would still be more and more

To be thankful for
